Walk 03—Wednesday 24th April 10:30am

Offa's Dyke Path Brockweir to Sedbury

The Offa's Dyke Path is one of the iconic long-distance trails that makes Chepstow such a magnet for walkers. We're delighted that Rob Dingle, National Trail Officer for the Offa's Dyke Path, has once again agreed to lead a walk along the route, this year from Tintern to the southern terminus of the path at Sedbury Cliffs, just outside Chepstow. At the end of the walk return transport will be provided to Tintern.

This walk is not suitable for dogs

Distance: 9 miles (linear with transport to start and return from Sedbury included)

Time: Allow 4 to 5 hours

Difficulty: Energetic

Meeting Point and Parking: SO536006 Tintern Old Station, A466 Tintern NP16 7NX (modest charge applies)

What to bring: Picnic, drinks and a camera
